

23 December 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 23 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force on Intelligence Activities.

25X1C

25X1C 1. The [REDACTED] Briefing and general tour will long be remembered by our team of investigators. Both Colonel Lane and Colonel Miller, as well as the undersigned, were completely awe-struck with the excellent demonstrations, and the scope and ramifications of the [REDACTED] operations. The Staff is to be commended for the excellent job of crowding into one short day a performance which normally cannot be accomplished in less than three days.

25X1C 2. The only questions of any import were asked by Colonel Miller and, true to form, they dealt with money and personnel. The specific questions ran as follows: "How much money have you invested in all this [REDACTED]" "What is your over-all budget?" "Who approves these projects [REDACTED]" "How many people do you employ to accomplish these missions?" "Are most of these people on a different pay scale?"

25X1C 3. Colonel Lane, on the other hand, asked very few questions and those that he did ask were usually of a technical nature. He did, however, express the desire to return some time in January to delve a little deeper into some items and also to personally meet the TSS personnel.

25X1A [REDACTED]

SECRET EYES ONLY

016199

~~SECRET~~

23 December 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 23 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force on Intelligence Activities.

1. The [REDACTED] Staff Briefing and general tour will long be remembered by our team of investigators. Both Colonel Lane and Colonel Miller, as well as the undersigned, were completely awestruck with the excellent demonstrations, and the scope and ramifications of the [REDACTED] operations. The Staff is to be commended for the excellent job of crowding into one short day a performance which normally cannot be accomplished in less than three days.

2. The only questions of any import were asked by Colonel Miller and, true to form, they dealt with money and personnel. The specific questions ran as follows: "How much money have you invested in all this [REDACTED]" "What is your over-all budget?" "Who approves these projects [REDACTED]" "How many people do you employ to accomplish these missions?" "Are most of these people on a different pay scale?"

3. Colonel Lane, on the other hand, asked very few questions and those that he did ask were usually of a technical nature. He did, however, express the desire to return some time in January to delve a little deeper into some items and also to personally meet the [REDACTED] personnel.

This document has been approved for release through the HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Date 5/5/92
HRP 89-2

~~SECRET~~

~~EYES ONLY~~

010199